

BANK OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA

PUBLIC NOTICE

FINANCIAL INCLUSION EXPO 2012

“The first step towards inclusive growth”

30TH November to 01 December 2012

Sir Ignatius Kilage Stadium. Lae, Morobe Province

The Bank of Papua New Guinea will be hosting a two (2) day Financial Inclusion Expo 2012 on the 30th of November to the 1st of December 2012, at the Sir Ignatius Kilage Indoor Stadium, Lae, Morobe Province.

The Financial Inclusion Expo 2012 is open to the general public and is intended to create awareness on the new and prospective developments in the finance and banking sector. This includes innovative financial services delivery channels such as electronic banking with a focus on mobile money as well as available trainings on financial education, business development services and other products and initiatives.

I therefore, invite the public to come and interact with the banks and financial institutions, training organisations, research institutions, telecommunication companies, government departments and other service providers, all at the same place for the first time, to know about their products, services and the roles they play in promoting financial inclusion in the country.

Authorized by Mr. Loi M Bakani,
Governor, Bank of Papua New Guinea

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:

GOLD SPONSORS

SILVER SPONSORS

